Who we are

The Mission to Seafarers in partnership with the Apostleship of the Sea, Danish Seamen's Church and German Seamen's Mission work together to provide pastoral and spiritual support to all seafarers. We operate a seafarers' club at the container terminal, a drop-in centre in Tsim Sha Tsui in the heart of the shopping district, a shuttle bus from the Kai Tak Cruise terminal and a Launch visiting ships in the Anchorage.

Our History

Renamed 'The Mission to Seafarers' in 2000, The Mission to Seamen is a missionary society of the Anglican Church and was founded in the UK in 1856. It provides seafarers with centres and Chaplains in over 200 ports around the world.

The first Mission (Sailors Home) in Hong Kong was built at West Point in 1863. It was replaced by a larger building in Wan Chai in 1933 and moved to Tsim Sha Tsui in 1967 with a second clubhouse at the container terminal in Kwai Chung that opened in 1975. In 1969 the Roman Catholic Apostleship of the Sea joined us in association, followed by the Danish Seamen's Church in 1981 and the German Seamen's Mission in 1995.

A Seafarer's Prayer

Steer the ship of my life, good Lord, to the quiet harbour, where I can be safe from the storms of sin and conflict. Show me the course I should take. Renew me in the gift of discernment, so that I can always see the right direction in which I should go; and give me the strength and courage to choose the right course, even when the sea is rough and the waves are high, knowing that through enduring hardship and danger we shall find comfort and peace. Amen. (St Basil)

God has said "I will never leave you; I will never forget you" So we can be sure when we say "I will not be afraid because the LORD is my helper".

(Hebrews 13:5-6)

It doesn't matter who we are. It doesn't matter what we've done. God wants us as a friend. So wherever we are, we can know that God is with us. Jesus said, "If people love me, they will obey my teaching. My father will love them and we will come to them and make our home with them".

(John 14)

Anchorage

The Mariners' DAYSPRING Launch visits ships in the Anchorage six mornings a week from Monday to Saturday.

We are pleased to be able to offer advice and local information, SIM cards and a warm welcome to the Port of Hong Kong. Our team of chaplains can also offer confidential advice and counselling and are happy to arrange religious services on board ships in the anchorage.

In addition, at the end of each morning we may also be able to provide crew with a free 'one-way' ride into the Kowloon public pier. BUT, all crew must make their own arrangements for getting back to their vessels.
